New Schools Community Forum

Chicago Public Schools' Office of New Schools is hosting a New Schools Community Forum on July 9, 2009, from 7:00 – 8:30 p.m. at the Irving Park YMCA on 4251 West Irving Park Road.

At that time, members from the Avondale Montessori Academy School Design Team will answer questions about their efforts to open Chicago's first public Montessori charter school. Topics of discussion include:

- What is a charter school?
- What is the Montessori Method?
- How will a Montessori school benefit your children?
- When will Avondale Montessori Academy open?
- Where will Avondale Montessori Academy be located?
- How can you support Avondale Montessori Academy's quest to gain operating approval from Chicago Public Schools?

About Avondale Montessori Academy

Avondale Montessori Academy (AMA) is a proposed K-8 public charter school that will provide children with a tuition-free Montessori education. Montessori schools have a strong track record of providing a high-quality education for thousands of children each year.

AMA will be a safe, nurturing environment where children will be taught to succeed using a proven approach. They will not only master academics, but they will also explore art, music, leadership, and other key areas.

About The Community Forum

The New Schools Community Forum is sponsored by The Office of New Schools Renaissance 2010 program. Renaissance 2010 is an initiative to increase the number of high-quality education options in communities across Chicago.

Please attend the Forum to learn more about AMA and other proposed schools!
